

Bribie Island Lunch Cruise – Butterfly House Thursday 23rd February 2022

Destinations: Bribie Island

Bribie Island is the smallest and most northerly of three major sand islands around Moreton Bay. Bribie Island is 34 kilometres long, and 8 kilometres at its widest and most of the island is uninhabited national park. As we cross the Bribie Island Bridge you will be greeted by a captivating view of Pumicestone Passage and in the distance the majestic Glass House Mountains. After morning tea our next stop will be the Bribie Island Butterfly House which is run by local volunteers. The Butterfly House is 24mx10m and you will see many hundreds of beautiful live butterflies flying around you!! Enjoy a relaxing lunch time cruise with a delicious BBQ lunch onboard the Lady Brisbane. A trip around gorgeous Bribie Island, Skirmish Point, Gilligan's Island and Deception Bay is always a magical experience. After the Lunch Cruise we are making our way back to Toowoomba with lots memories
