Today, we embark on a delightful exploration of the incredible tastes the Tweed region has to offer. With majestic views of Mount Warning, also known as Wollumbin or the Cloud Catcher, it's easy to see why this peak holds such cultural and natural significance. Our journey begins at Tweed Valley Whey, a fourth-generation family-run dairy farm in Burringbar, where we'll enjoy a paddock-to-platter cheese tasting. Afterward, we'll venture along the scenic back roads of the Tweed Valley, passing through the charming town of Chillingham and stopping at Bucks Farm, an organic bush tucker farm. A leisurely lunch will follow before we visit the renowned Tweed Regional Gallery in Murwillumbah, where we'll immerse ourselves in inspiring local art. Our final stop will be at Husk Farm Distillery, where we'll indulge in a paddock-to-bottle tasting of craft rum and craft gin at the cellar door. After a day of exploration, we'll return to our accommodation to unwind and enjoy some time to explore the area. In the evening, we'll gather for a fantastic dinner at Farm and Co, savoring the best of local produce and flavours.
