

Les Miserables – The Arena Spectacular

Saturday 31 May 2025

Destinations: Brisbane Entertainment Centre

The Australian production of Les Misérables promises to be a star-studded event, bringing together a remarkable cast of both renowned and emerging talents. Leading the show are Alfie Boe and Killian Donnelly, who will share the role of Jean Valjean, and Michael Ball and Bradley Jaden, who will alternate as Javert. The iconic characters of the Thénardiens will be portrayed by Matt Lucas and Marina Prior, while Rachelle Ann Go will take on the role of Fantine.

The story of Les Misérables will also feature Jac Yarrow as Marius, Beatrice Penny-Touré as Cosette, and James D. Gish as Enjolras. With a company of over 65 performers, including a full orchestra, the production promises to deliver an unforgettable theatrical experience.

As the world's longest-running musical enters its 40th year in London, this spectacular Australian version introduces an exciting new design. The performance is expected to be visually stunning and includes gunfire, smoke, and flashing light effects. The show will run for 2 hours and 45 minutes, with a 20-minute interval.
