ITINEARY

Day 1 | Tuesday 1 Dec. 26 TOOWOOMBA – BRISBANE AIRPORT – HOBART D

Your Tasmanian adventure begins as we depart Toowoomba by coach and travel to Brisbane Airport. After check-in, we board our flight to Hobart, arriving in Australia's southernmost capital in the early afternoon.

Upon arrival, we meet our driver/guide and begin our journey to the "Apple Isle," the affectionate nickname for Tasmania. Enjoy a scenic drive to the summit of Mount Wellington (Kunanyi), where spectacular views overlook the city, the Derwent River, and the surrounding wilderness. We then enjoy a brief panoramic sightseeing tour of Hobart, taking in the city's main highlights from the comfort of our vehicle before transferring to our centrally located accommodation. Dinner at Accommodation.

Day 2 | Wednesday 2 Dec. PORT ARTHUR– HARBOUR CRUISE – TASMAN PENINSULA B, MT, D

Today we travel southeast to the Tasman Peninsula, an area rich in natural beauty and convict history. We stop at a local Port Arthur Lavender Farm to savor freshly baked scones with jam and explore the gardens. Next, we visit the Tasmanian Chocolate Foundry –for a tasting experience. Upon arrival at the UNESCO-listed Port Arthur Historic Site, we begin with a fully guided walking tour, learning about the lives of convicts, soldiers, and free settlers. Next, we board a harbour cruise, offering unique waterside views of the site and nearby Isle of the Dead. After the cruise, you may explore restored buildings, ruins, and heritage gardens at your own pace, with the option to purchase lunch at your own cost. We return to Hobart in the early evening, concluding the day with dinner at the hotel.

Day 3 | Friday Thursday 3 Dec. Hobart – Richmond – Orford – Swansea – Freycinet Coast B, L, D

This morning, we farewell Hobart and travel north through the historic village of Richmond, home to Australia's oldest stone bridge. Enjoy time to explore the quaint shops, bakery, and riverside scenery. We continue along the Great Eastern Drive through Orford, Triabunna, and Swansea, witnessing breathtaking views across Great Oyster Bay towards Freycinet Peninsula. Enjoy a relaxing vineyard lunch, featuring local wines and regional produce. Arrive in Bicheno in the late afternoon and check into our coastal accommodation. We meet for dinner.

Day 4 | Friday 4 Dec Freycinet National Park – Wineglass Bay Cruise – Bicheno Blowhole B, L, D

Today we explore one of Tasmania's most iconic regions. We begin with a short walk to the Wineglass Bay Lookout, showcasing one of the world's most photographed beaches. Later, we join Pennicott Wilderness Journeys for a 4.5-hour eco-adventure cruise, travelling along the coastline of Freycinet National Park. Marvel at pink granite cliffs, secluded bays, and the pristine waters of Wineglass Bay. A gourmet lunch is served on board. Return to Bicheno with time to visit the Bicheno Blowhole, a spectacular natural seawater geyser. Dinner tonight at the Accommodation.

Day 5 | Saturday 5 Dec East Coast – Derby – Little Blue Lake – Scottsdale – Launceston B, D

Today we travel north through Derby, passing the striking Little Blue Lake and the charming town of Scottsdale. We visit the iconic Pub in the Paddock, set in the picturesque Pyengana region, known for its fresh local produce. Here, we enjoy a leisurely lunch (own expense) surrounded by the stunning rural landscape. After lunch, we continue our journey through the scenic Pyengana region, taking in the rolling hills, forests, and rivers along the way, before arriving in Launceston by late afternoon. The day concludes with dinner at our hotel, offering time to relax and reflect on the beautiful landscapes we've explored.

Day 6 | Sunday 6 Dec Cataract Gorge – Tamar River – Queen Victoria Museum B, L, D

Begin the day at the stunning Cataract Gorge Reserve, only minutes from central Launceston. Enjoy free time to walk the gardens, suspension bridge, or scenic pathways before boarding your 1-hour Tamar River Cruise, showcasing the gorge from the water. Lunch (own expense) is enjoyed at the Cataract Gorge Café. In the afternoon, we visit the Queen Victoria Museum at Inveresk, renowned for its cultural, natural science, and Tasmanian history exhibits.
