Tuesday 31 March 2026

Travel in comfort with Premier Queensland from Toowoomba to Brisbane and discover one of the city's best-kept secrets — an elegant high tea at the historic Strangers' Restaurant in Queensland Parliament House.

Built in 1865, Queensland Parliament House is an architectural gem. The Strangers' Restaurant, once exclusive to male Members of Parliament, opened to the public in 2006 and has become one of Queensland's most beloved dining destinations.

Step back in time while enjoying delicious high-tea selections in a setting full of heritage charm.

After high tea, take a Parliament House tour and see Queensland's legislature in action — a truly memorable experience.
