Tour Description:

Climb aboard a special Double Header steam train and relive the golden age of rail! Witness the spectacle of two powerful steam locomotives working in tandem, chugging through the stunning Darling Downs countryside on a 90-minute scenic heritage journey. Let the rhythm of the rails and the hiss of steam transport you to another time as you glide past breathtaking rural landscapes. This isn't just a ride—it's a moving piece of history. Enjoy a stop at a much-loved local dining spot, celebrated for its warm hospitality and hearty, regional fare. Garden Tours – Wander through the vibrant displays of Laurel Bank Park, Queens Park Botanic Gardens, the serene Japanese Garden, and visit private garden gems crowned champions of The Chronicle Garden Competition. Whether you're a steam train buff, a gardening lover, or simply seeking a memorable day out, this experience blends nostalgia, nature, and local charm in one unforgettable journey.
